SEYCHELLES PENSION FUND ACT, 2005

(Act No 9 of 2005)

Seychelles Pension Fund (Benefits) Regulations, 2005

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 68 of the Seychelles Pension Fund Act, 2005 the President, acting as the Minister responsible for Finance hereby makes the following Regulations –

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

1. These Regulations may be cited as Seychelles Pension Fund (Benefits) Regulations, 2005 and shall come into operation on 1st January 2006.

Citation and commencement

2. In these Regulations –

Interpretation

(1) “approved form” means a form provided by the Chief Executive Officer, or such other form which the Chief Executive Officer may in any particular case approve, for the purpose of claiming a gratuity, allowance or pension under these Regulations;

“business” means a business in terms of the Business Tax Act;

“child” means –

- (a) a legitimate child;
- (b) a natural but recognised child;
- (c) an adopted child;
- (d) a child pursuant to an affiliation order of a court or the Family Tribunal; or
- (e) a child whose paternal descent has been proved under Article 340 of the Civil Code of a member, who is under 18 years old or who is under 25 years old and still in full time education;

“children’s pension” means a monthly pension payable to a child of a deceased member or the guardian of the child for the maintenance of the child;

“guardian” means a person appointed—

(a) as guardian of a child by a parent under Article 397 of the Civil Code; or

(b) as guardian of a child by the Court under Article 402, or

(c) as a sub-guardian of a child by the Court under Article 420 or 422 of the Civil Code, and includes –

(i) any person to whose care a child is committed under or by virtue of a court or the family tribunal order; and

(ii) any person who, in the opinion of a court or the family tribunal for the time being has daily charge of or control over a child;

“invalid” means a person who in the opinion of the Medical Board is incapable of work as a result of a disease or bodily injury which is likely to remain permanent;

“maintenance or maintaining” means contributing to the household expenses and/or daily needs of an applicant, financially or otherwise, as one of the main contributors to the aforesaid expenses and needs and contribution in this definition includes being the main person, doing the laundering, cooking or cleaning for a member or caring for his child, without being paid any salary for the aforesaid services ;

“prescribed retirement age” means the prescribed age for retirement under the Social Security Act (Cap 225)

“salary” means remuneration in money payable in respect of employment including any supplementation and commuted allowances attached to the post.

(2) Where in these regulations a reference is made to average salary in relation to the period of years specified under column (2) of Schedule 3, but due to the absence of the relevant records for the whole period such average salary cannot be determined in a particular case, the Chief Executive Officer may treat the average salary based on the records that are available as the proper “average salary” in such case for the purposed of that regulation.

(S1 53 of 2016)

PART II - GENERAL

Application for pension gratuity or allowance

3.(1) A application for a pension, gratuity or allowance shall be made in an approved form and within the time limits specified in these Regulations.

(2) Where it appears to the Chief Executive Officer that a person who has made an application for a pension, gratuity or allowance is entitled to a pension, gratuity or allowance other than the one specified in the application, the Chief Executive Officer may with the approval of the applicant treat the application as an application for the pension, gratuity or allowance to which the person is entitled.

(3) An applicant for a pension, gratuity or allowance, who due to an incapacity is unable to act, may authorised in writing any other person to act on his behalf in respect of his application and for his pension, gratuity or allowance to be made out to or collected by the authorised person or to be paid into the account of the authorized person, which authorisation shall be attested by 2 adults not being the authorised person,.

(4) The Chief Executive Officer shall upon receipt of an authorisation under subregulation make all the necessary enquiries, including contacting the witnesses to the authorisation and shall keep a written record of his enquiries and findings, in order to satisfy himself that the authorisation is a genuine one and the applicant has not given it under duress.

4. A person applying for a pension, gratuity or allowance shall, in addition to any certificate, document or evidence he is required to furnish under any other provision of these Regulations, furnish such other certificate, information and evidence as the Chief Executive Officer may require in any particular case, and shall, if reasonably required, attend at such place and time as the Chief Executive Officer may require, for the purpose of the determination of the claim.

Nomination of beneficiary

(2) The nomination shall be made in the approved form attested by 2 adults other than the other than a nominee

(3) A nomination may be changed at any time but the last nomination shall always supersede the earlier one whether formally revoked or not.

(4) A member who makes any voluntary contributions to the Fund, may at any time prior to his death subject to Regulation 7, nominate in the approved form any person to be entitled to his voluntary contribution if any, standing to his credit in the Fund at the time of his death prior to his retirement and such nominated person shall be entitled to the aforesaid contribution upon the member's death prior to his retirement.

(5) Where a member fails to make any nomination under subregulation (4), his heirs shall subject to regulation 7, be entitled to any voluntary contribution, standing to his credit in the Fund.

Time limits
for claim

6. (1) Where an application for a pension, gratuity or allowance is referred back to the applicant because it is defective, incomplete or without the supporting documents, the applicant shall provide the required information and re-submit the application for consideration before it can be processed.

(2) Where upon an application, the Chief Executive Officer wishes to be fully satisfied that an application, allegation or statement made is genuine, he may carry out an investigation to obtain proof of the said allegation or statement

voluntary Contribution
as a guarantee

7. Where a member has notified the Chief Executive Officer in writing of his or her decision to use his voluntary contribution as a security for a housing loan or a loan for medical treatment and provided the Chief Executive Officer with details of the loan transaction, if the loan has not been repaid in full at the time of his death or retirement, the voluntary contribution shall not be refunded or taken into account for calculation of the member's retirement pension under regulation 13 until proof is provided to the Chief Executive Officer of the discharge of the loan.

PART III - RETIREMENT PENSION

Entitlement to Retirement
Pension

8.(1) A member who qualifies for a retirement pension under section 33 of the Act shall, if he has resided in Seychelles for continuous period of at least 5 years immediately prior to his retirement unless such requirement is waived by the Board, be entitled to a retirement pension for life upon retirement at the age of 60 or above, calculated on the member's average salary for the period of years, specified under column 2 of Schedule 3 corresponding to the year of retirement of the member, specified under column (1) of that Schedule, s preceding his retirement in accordance with the formula specified in subregulation (IB). Provided that the requirement of residence in Seychelles for a continuous period of at least 5 years immediately prior to retirement shall not apply to a member who pays contributions under section 18 (4A) of the Act (S1 19 of 2007& S.I. 58 of 2014), SI 53 of 2016

(1A) where a member satisfied the Chief Executive Officer that:-

- (a) the member has ceased to be employed on attaining the age of 55 or later, or after paying contribution to the Social Security Fund or the Seychelles Pension Fund for a minimum of 20 years in the aggregate, and
- (b) the member's salary on being reemployed is less than the member's average salary for the period of years specified under column (2) of Schedule 3 corresponding to the year of retirement of the member, specified under column (1) of that Schedule immediately prior to attaining such age, or completing the payment of contribution for such minimum period, as is referred to in paragraph (a), (SI 53 of 2016)

the salary based on which the member's pension on retirement is calculated is the highest annual salary earned by the member during the period of years specified under column (2) of Schedule 3 corresponding to the year of retirement of the member, specified under column (1) of that Schedule. (SI 53 of 2016).

(2) A member referred to in subregulation (1) shall, upon his application for his retirement pension under these Regulations being granted, be simultaneously entitled to the retirement pension provided for under the Social Security Act notwithstanding that he may not have attained the prescribed retirement age.
